

COME HEAR THE INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN HARDING SISTERS

First Baptist Church invites the community to a free concert featuring Maaike Harding and Rebecca Harding Mayer at the church at 5304 Charles Street at 7:00 PM on Saturday February 20th, pie will be served after the concert.

The Harding sisters, along with sister Rachel, are the internationally known Harding Trio who have performed in master classes with Beaux-Arts Trio, Julliard Quartet, Itzhak Perlman, John Perry, Norman Fisher, Sergei Babayan and Donald and Vivian Weilerstein.

In 2006, Ms. Maaike Harding joined the Wô-mèn quartet, which was selected to perform in the Kennedy Center for the "Conservatory Project". Rebecca has performed nationally and internationally in solo concerts, including performances last summer in Prague and Italy.

The concert will consist of a variety of light-hearted classical pieces in which the audience will have the opportunity to participate and learn about different classical styles. We will enjoy pieces by Popper, Rachmoninooff, Mendelson and Martinu. Anyone who appreciates or is studying piano or cello music will certainly enjoy this time with the Harding sisters. The evening will conclude with encouragement from the Scriptures and a pie social.

There will be an offering taken to meet spiritual and physical needs of those suffering from the disaster in Haiti.

No tickets or reservations are required
